

JUVENILE PROBATION OFFICER-INTAKE CASEWORKER

9th Circuit Court-Family Division

Deadline to Apply: August 5, 2013 at 5:00 p.m.

Job Responsibilities:

Assess and evaluate children and families in order to recommend a rehabilitation plan to the court and to develop and implement child welfare service. Conduct investigations to ascertain problem areas of child and family in delinquency cases. Prepare summary reports of cases and make recommendations to the Court to resolve problems and provide opportunities for adjustment. Supervise and monitor behavior of youth on probation. Provide a range/frequency of direct interventions as dictated by the needs of the family and program status.

Job Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree in social sciences, education, a related human service field, or a related field that qualifies the person to manage or supervise the delivery of juvenile services, and must complete the Michigan Judicial Institute certification training for juvenile court staff within two years after date of employment.

Desired Bachelor's degree in social work, criminal justice, education, behavior sciences, or a related field that qualifies the person to manage or supervise the delivery of juvenile services, with two years of casework experience in juvenile court or a related child welfare agency and must complete the MJJ certification training for juvenile court staff within two years after date of employment.

Apply via fax: 269-385-8588

Or

US Mail to: Kay Budas, Administrative Assistant
9th Circuit Court, Family Division
1400 Gull Road
Kalamazoo, MI 49048

Or

Via website: www.kalcounty.com